Dear Sir or Madam:

I, the undersigned, hereby confirm with full personal and legal responsibility that I have requested this information of my own free will and accord and I'm not seeking any type of investment opportunity. Upon reviewing any/all information that I've requested about this activity, I have made the decision of my own accord and haven't been solicited or promised anything for my involvement. I hereby affirm that any information I am requesting is about a private gifting activity and I confirm neither you nor anyone on your behalf or associated with this activity has solicited me in any way. All parties state as truth that they are not employees or officials in or of any agency and are not a member of the media whose sole purpose is to collect information for defamation or prosecution. All parties agree falsification of criteria entitles the party defrauded thereby to $100,000.00 (U.S.) for violation of rights against forced association. Any documents or information received will not be construed as solicitation in any way whatsoever. I further affirm I have been told the nature of this activity is not a charity. My involvement is with charitable gifting and solely a voluntary act of my own accord. I also understand that should I get involved with gifting that said gift will be just that, a gift, and that it is nothing to which I may lay claim in the future. It's a gift.

It is agreed that a fax or emailed copy will be considered legal and enforceable as an original.
